About the event: The gala dinner will be held at the Chateau de Perdiguier celebrating the 25th anniversary of this annual educational event. The Chateau is located in Maraussan, near Béziers. The estate owes its name to Jean Perdiguier, treasurer in Languedoc of King Charles V of France, who awarded him the property in 1375. During all the XVIIth and the XVIIIth century, the seigneurie passes successively, by the women, in the families of Arnoye, Rouch, Lort de Sérignan... In 1793, the domain is auctioned as national property and acquired bought by the family Fernière in 1968. Since the end of 1960s it is registered as a Historic Monument

Today, on nearly 700 hectares, the estate has diversified its production with a 34-hectare vineyard. Info at: domaineperdiguier.com
